

Advancing materials. Improving the quality of life.

GEORGIA INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY CHAPTER

9th Annual School of Materials Science and Engineering Poster Competition
Materials Research Society University Chapter
Georgia Institute of Technology

Donations will be used for the annual MSE Poster competition and the benefits are tied to the donation level as described below.

Platinum - $2000:

Benefits: Gold +

- Exhibitor booth at poster session

Gold - $1000:

Benefits: Silver +

- Logo featured on MRS T-shirt

Silver - $500:

Benefits: Bronze +

- Opportunity to tour Georgia Tech MSE labs

Bronze - $250:

Benefits:

- Opportunity to give an industry talk (virtually or in-person)
- Sponsorship featured on our website
- Included in poster session ads

Advancing materials. Improving the quality of life.
GEORGIA INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY CHAPTER

Letter of intent

In recognition and support of the Materials Research Society University Chapter at Georgia Tech's commitment to broadening the materials science community and enriching the professional network available to materials researchers and students, it is

_____ 's intent to contribute: _____
(company) (amount)

to support the ninth annual MSE undergraduate and graduate poster competition hosted by the MRS chapter for the students in the School of Materials Science and Engineering at Georgia Tech.

The sponsorship will be fulfilled via a one-time donation.

Company Representative _____

Company Name _____

Street Address _____

City, State, Zip _____

Phone _____

Signature _____

Checks should be made out to the Georgia Tech Foundation and designated for MRS in the memo line. Please attach check and return this form to:

Student Organization Finance Office
353 Ferst Drive, Suite 141
Atlanta, GA 30332 – 0285

If you would prefer credit card or wire transfer payment methods, please contact Tyler Knapp at tknapp9@gatech.edu for more information.